

List of ISDs in the Texas Client Consortium:

Approximately 13 percent of tested students in Texas are included in the consortium of districts using EVAAS for value-added analyses. HISD makes up approximately 29 percent of those students. The other districts include:

Anderson-Shiro Consolidated Independent School District
Athens Independent School District*
Austin Independent School District*
Boys Ranch Independent School District
Coldspring-Oakhurst Consolidated Independent School District
Fort Worth Independent School District
Grand Prairie Independent School District
Hearne Independent School District
Houston Independent School District*
Lancaster Independent School District*
Longview Independent School District*
Lubbock Independent School District*
Lytle Independent School District*
Monte Alto Independent School District
Mullin Independent School District
New Caney Independent School District
Northside Independent School District
Pharr-San Juan-Alamo Independent School District*
Richardson Independent School District*
Somerset Independent School District*
Spring Branch Independent School District*

(*) All data from this district is used by EVAAS to complete value-added analyses at the campus and teacher levels.

() All data from this district is used by EVAAS to complete value-added analyses at the district and campus levels. A subset of data is used by EVAAS to complete value-added analyses at the teacher level.

Please note that the consortium is only used for value-added analyses at the campus and teacher levels for the STAAR End-of-Course (EOC) assessments, the STAAR assessments in Science in Grades 5 and 8, and the STAAR assessment in Social Studies in Grade 8