

WHOLE STUDENT WHOLE SCHOOL

JUNE 13–14, 2016

The Ohio Union
The Ohio State University
Columbus, Ohio

Educators CONNECT for SUCCESS Conference

2016 REGISTRATION BROCHURE

2016 Educators Connect for Success puts the student at the center of their learning with this year's theme:

WHOLE STUDENT  WHOLE SCHOOL

The 2016 Educators Connect for Success conference will highlight ways educators can make connections among students, schools, and their communities and focus on placing students at the center of their learning.

We will explore the interaction of:

- traditional academic measures,
- non-academic skills and dispositions, and;
- physical, social, and emotional well-being as measures of student success.

We owe it to our students to consider all factors that impact their learning.

Together, we will create a vision for the Whole Student, Whole School approach to learning.

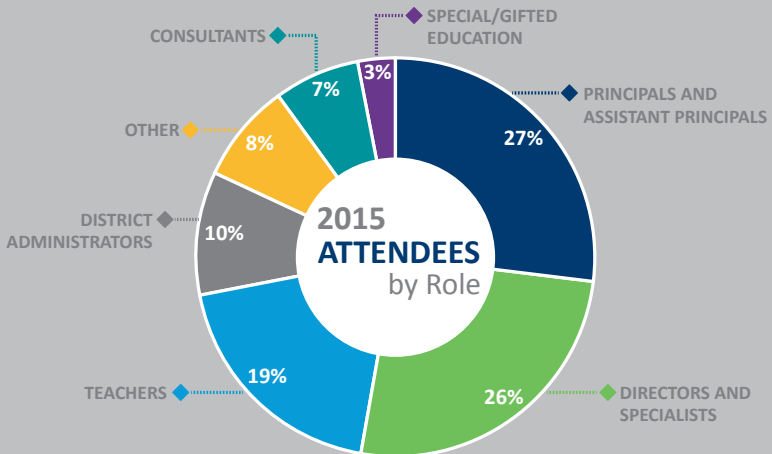

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Teachers
- Principals and Assistant Principals
- Superintendents
- Central Office Staff
- Higher Education Faculty
- Education Consultants
- Education Association Members
- Education Policymakers

The conference connects educators at all levels, from classroom to board room, with practical information that can be put into action.

WHY SHOULD YOU ATTEND?

The Educators Connect for Success conference grows every year because of the valuable opportunities it offers educators and others for professional learning and collaboration around the topics that matter most to improve teaching and learning.

Our presenters will address challenges and opportunities around key themes in education, such as:

- 21st Century Skills
- Blended Learning
- Collaborative Leadership
- College and Career Readiness
- Community Connections
- Health and Wellness
- Hope and Engagement
- Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- Parent Engagement
- Personalized Learning
- Positive Behavior Supports
- Quality Profiles/Measures that Matter
- School Culture
- Social and Emotional Learning
- STEM
- Student Ownership of Learning
- And much more!

HERE'S WHAT A FEW 2015 ATTENDEES HAD TO SAY:

“ I had a great time and am very excited about everything I learned. Can't wait to come back with my team next year!”

“ This was an incredible conference. Kudos to the committee. I have attended and presented at over 10 Battelle for Kids conferences, and this was by far the BEST!”

“ Best conference I've attended in quite some time!”

KEYNOTE SPEAKER | MONDAY, JUNE 13

@ramusallam

Ramsey Musallam is a secondary science instructor at Sacred Heart Cathedral in downtown San Francisco and also has served as an adjunct professor of education at the University of San Francisco and Touro University. In addition to his role as a science instructor, Ramsey is the Director of Inquiry and Innovation at Sacred Heart Cathedral and runs invention workshops for elementary and middle school students in the Bay Area.

Ramsey delivers keynotes, webinars, and facilitates workshops for teachers internationally with a focus on using technology as a strategic classroom partner in designing learning environments grounded in inquiry fueled by student curiosity. Additionally, Ramsey is the host of the Infinite Thinking Machine, an internet TV show dedicated to sharing innovative ideas for teachers and students. Ramsey's TED Talk "3 Rules to Spark Learning" is widely popular with classroom teachers, and was the lead talk on TED's first ever PBS TV premiere, "TED Talks Education."

Upon graduating from the University of California Davis with a BS in Molecular and Cellular Biology, Ramsey went on to obtain an MA and Ed.D in Education from the University of San Francisco. Since graduating, Ramsey's research interests have shifted from using Multimedia to manage student Cognitive Load, to a focus on harnessing Multimedia as a tool in cultivating student curiosity, inquiry and motivation.
