

Reaching Every Student Module Series

These formative instructional practices modules help educators:

Reach English Language Learners

Reach Gifted Students

Reach Students with Disabilities

The Reaching Every Student modules complement the Foundations of Formative Instructional Practices and FIP in Action modules by providing relevant learning for those who teach English Language Learners, students with disabilities, and gifted students. You will see these practices in action, explore ideas specific to each population of students, and gain valuable insights that can be applied in your classroom.

Reaching Every Student Module Series

FORMATIVE INSTRUCTIONAL
PRACTICES:

REACHING ENGLISH
LANGUAGE LEARNERS

This module is intended to help classroom teachers interested in improving instruction for their students that are learning English, as well as for ELL teachers who may be beginning their FIP journey. This module deepens teachers' understanding of how to best meet the needs of ELL students by using formative instructional practices (FIP) to maximize their achievement and growth.

FORMATIVE INSTRUCTIONAL

REACHING GIFTED
STUDENTS

This module is intended to help classroom teachers interested in improving instruction for their gifted students, as well as teachers in gifted classrooms who may be beginning their FIP journey. This module deepens teachers' understanding of how to best meet the needs of gifted students by using formative instructional practices (FIP) to maximize their achievement and growth.

FORMATIVE INSTRUCTIONAL

REACHING STUDENTS
WITH DISABILITIES

This module is intended to help classroom teachers interested in improving instruction for their students with disabilities (SWD), as well as intervention specialists who may be beginning their FIP journey. This module deepens teachers' understanding of how to best meet the needs of students with a range of special needs by using formative instructional practices (FIP) to maximize their achievement and growth.

This module series is FREE and available for all Ohio educators. To learn more or enroll, visit www.fipyourschoolohio.org and select "Reaching Every Student" under the Blended Learning page.
