

Thought Leader Event

Tuesday, May 2, 2017

10 a.m.–2:30 p.m. (9 a.m. registration, and lunch is provided)

The Ohio Union at The Ohio State University

10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Collaborative Leadership

Peter M. DeWitt, Ed.D., author of Collaborative Leadership: Six Influences That Matter Most

Dr. DeWitt is a former K-5 teacher and principal, and author of several books that have been influential for educators across the country. In Collaborative Leadership, he unpacks six leadership factors, all framed through the lens of John Hattie's research. Adding insight, practical experiences, and vignettes, he paints a powerful scheme: meet stakeholders where they are, motivate stakeholders to strive for improvement, model how to do it.

12-12:45 p.m.

Lunch and Future Vision for SOAR

Karen Garza, Ph.D., President and CEO of Battelle for Kids

Dr. Garza will discuss the evolution of SOAR moving into the 2017-18 school year, and how BFK can support the work you're doing to ensure all students have access to an educational experience that prepares them for success in college, in careers, and in life.

1–2:30 p.m.

Current State of Education

Daniel A. Domenech, Ph.D., executive director of AASA, The School Superintendents Association

Dr. Domenech will discuss the Every Student Succeeds Act and the current state of education. With more than 36 years of experience in public education, he now leads AASA, which serves as the national voice for public education and district leadership on Capitol Hill.

First 70 educators to register win a free copy of Collaborative Leadership by Peter M. DeWitt!
